Canada Day critiqued by committee

By VICKI BROOKER
Review Staff

The CFB Cold Lake fighter jet that streaked over Elk Point's Main Street just before the Canada Day parade was a huge hit with the Canada Day committee, who met last Tuesday to compare notes on the July 1 celebration.

"That was so cool," one member remarked, while another said her pre-teen grandson had been so impressed he was writing a personal letter of thanks to CFB Cold Lake. Everyone agreed that whenever possible, a fly-past of this type would be a real addition to future celebrations. "And next time, I'm bringing my video camera," said yet another member.

The Elk Point and District Lions Club, who handled the parade lineup again this year, "were excellent," according to committee chair Bernice Capjack, who said she felt the parade went very well.

Last year's problems with inadequate food service on July 1 are a thing of the past, with numerous groups stepping in to provide food virtually all day long. The Chamber of Commerce estimates that 900 people enjoyed pancakes, the Elks Lodge report about 240 attended their supper, while in between, Elk Point Co-op's joint effort with the Elk Point Municipal Library "was huge," according to Co-op's Mark Gormley. "This was our first year, and it went over very well. There was a solid line for the longest time."

The Christian Community Church added burgers to their pie tent, the Allied Arts barbecued hot dogs at two locations during the day and evening, the Elk Point Skating Club packed the A. G. Ross Arena lobby with concession patrons, and the Ukrainian Dance Club scooped gallons of ice cream during the afternoon.

Forts gearing up for Saskatoon Festival

By VICKI BROOKER
Review Staff

Saskatoons are once again on the menu and also in the spotlight at this Saturday's Saskatoon Festival at Fort George and Buckingham House Provincial Historic Site.

This annual event started out as a day when one could enjoy a slice of tasty saskatoon pie and ice cream and browse the crafts at an outdoor craft show and sale, and expanded last year with the addition of a saskatoon bake-off, with prizes for the creators of the best pies, preserves, muffins or cakes, and other desserts, along with a craft demonstration. The bake-off is back again and is scheduled for 1 p.m., and will feature some celebrity judges.

This year, the festival will feature two craftspeople, a potter and a glass-etching artist, who will be giving demonstrations between 1 and 4 p.m., as well as a stick-horse buffalo hunt for the children, starting at 2 p.m.

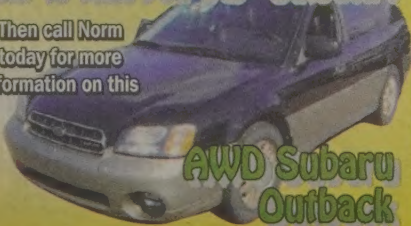

Another special event will be held in conjunction with this year's Saskatoon Festival. A cairn is to be dedicated to the memory of the people of the fur trade — those who lived and worked in and around the forts and those who came to trade — who were buried on the sites during the years when the forts were in operation. Government and Alberta Historic Sites representatives, elders from the Kehewin Cree Nation and Frog Lake First Nation, as well as descendants of the fur trade families, have been invited to take part in a ceremony near the Buckingham House site at noon that day, complete with a Métis fiddler and bagpiper. The public is welcome to attend this historic event.

Fort George and Buckingham House is located 13 km southeast of Elk Point via Hwy. 646 and is open from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. daily, until Labour Day.

Forts ambassadors

Fort George and Buckingham House is introducing a new program this year. Residents within a circle reaching just west of St. Paul to east of Frog Lake, south to Myrnam and north to Kehewin are being invited to sign on as Forts Ambassadors.

These individuals will receive a card that, when they bring friends or relatives from outside that circle to the site, those guests will be charged half price admission and the ambassador will not only get in free, but will also gain an entry in a prize draw for each visitor brought in. Further details are available at the historic site.

Marriage Announcement

Al & Dee Pankiw proudly announce the marriage of our daughter

Tanya Pankiw to James L'Heureux

at our home on July 4, 2009. We were proud to host friends and family for the weekend. Among the guests were James' parents, Art & Carol L'Heureux and others of his family from Ontario and his best man from BC as well as Tanya's brothers and their families from the Calgary and Saskatoon areas.

Tanya & James will be living in Edmonton where she works as a Health Promotions Manager at the Edmonton Garrison and he is a Captain in the Canadian Armed Forces. We wish them all the best in their life together.

RCMP review a very busy week

By Cst. JOHN SPAANS

Elk Point RCMP

During the week of June 29 to July 6, 2009, Elk Point RCMP received in excess of 35 calls to service in the Elk Point, Frog Lake and Fishing Lake areas.

Domestic violence

Elk Point RCMP members investigated two complaints of domestic violence during this period. On July 2, Elk Point Ambulance requested members assist with a female victim of domestic assault in Frog Lake. The female victim suffered a dislocated elbow as a result of the assault. The 34-year-old boyfriend of the victim has been charged with assault causing bodily harm.

On July 4, members responded to a complaint of domestic violence in Elk Point. The 40-year-old male suspect allegedly pushed his girlfriend down a flight of stairs during an alcohol-fueled argument. The victim did not suffer any injuries from the assault. The suspect has been charged with assault and two counts of failing to comply with conditions.

Both males mentioned above are due to make their first appearance in St. Paul Provincial Court on July 9, 2009.

Impaired drivers

Elk Point RCMP members nabbed two impaired drivers during the period. On June 29 at 7:30 p.m., Cst. Bullock conducted a traffic stop on Highway 41 north of Elk Point following a complaint of a suspected impaired driver. The 45-year-old male driver was travelling from Bonnyville to Vermilion in an erratic fashion following an argument with his wife and family. The male showed signs of impairment and was arrested. Breath tests revealed blood alcohol content as high as 140 mg per cent (0.14).

On July 8 at 2:15 p.m., Cst. Spaans was alerted to an inebriated male leaving the Shotz Liquor Store in Elk Point. It was feared that the male would be driving away. Upon Cst. Spaans' arrival, the 52-year-old male was found to be sitting in the driver's seat of his truck, preparing to pull away. Cst. Spaans prevented the male from driving away and determined that male to be under the influence of alcohol. Subsequent breath tests revealed blood alcohol in excess of 140 mg per cent.

Assault with a weapon

On July 5, 2009 at 9 a.m., Cst. Feero and Cst. Bullock attended a complaint of a large family fight in Frog Lake. Initial information indicated that a 24-year-old male was being attacked by family members following a night-long drinking party. The male located a baseball bat and began to swing it at the family members, hitting one individual. The male then proceeded to use the bat on a vehicle parked in front of the residence. Investigation into the matter is ongoing and charges are being considered for all parties involved.

Break and enter/Theft

On July 1, 2009 at 4 p.m., Cst. Fehr and Cst. Spaans attended a break and enter at Kelly's Closet in Elk Point. Suspect gained entry through the side wall of the building and stole a number of items. A Crimestoppers release was fanned out across local media outlets resulting in multiple tips from the general public. Police have narrowed their focus on two individuals who are also suspected of stealing alcohol from Shotz Liquor Store earlier in the day. Although the investigation has been narrowed, police are still seeking information from anyone who may have seen suspicious activity in downtown Elk Point any time during Canada Day.

Dangerous driving

On July 1, 2009 at approximately 2:30 p.m., Cst. Spaans and Cst. Barber attended a complaint of dangerous driving. Investigation revealed that a 39-year-old male came across an individual with whom he had a disagreement. The victim was not interested in a confrontation and left the location in his vehicle. The suspect followed the victim with his own vehicle on Highway 897 and proceeded to ram the victim's vehicle from the rear. The suspect then drove next to the victim's car and rammed the side. The victim managed to pull into a driveway and sought safety. Cst. Spaans and Cst. Barber located the suspect vehicle and driver a short time later at the Catholic Church in Frog Lake. The suspect has been charged with dangerous operation of a motor vehicle and hit and run. No one was injured during the occurrence.

Parole violator

On July 2, 2009, Michael Calliou of Fishing Lake was arrested on multiple outstanding warrants by the Edmonton Police Service. On June 20, 2000, Calliou entered a residence near Heinsburg and assaulted a male inside. This occurrence resulted in Calliou's parole being revoked. Calliou avoided apprehension by the police until July 2 when he was located by the EPS.

Canada Day

Members of the Elk Point and St. Paul RCMP Detachments were pleased with the community support and involvement during the Canada Day celebrations. Members marched in Elk Point Canada Day parade and later walked through festivities in and around the town. Special thanks must go out to all of the organizers and volunteers for their hard work efforts during the holiday.

Several new volunteers joined the pancake breakfast crew this year, and former Elk Point Servus Credit Union manager Rod Randall came back to take his usual post behind the grill.

The Country Playboys provided easy listening country music for the Elk Point Chamber of Commerce Canada Day pancake breakfast crowd.

Canada Day critiqued by committee

Laverne Wilson reported "good competitions, and so many volunteer kids to help with them," at the children's activities. "There were even some volunteers from out of town." Over 800 freezies were given out as prizes during the event.

A lack of entries in the Yard Decorating contest led to a decision that next year, perhaps the focus should shift to the downtown business area, with Main Street merchants urged to "pretty up the parade route." There was also a definite consensus among committee members that taking part in Communities in Bloom would be a huge asset to the community.

"I would like to have people put their efforts into things that stay all year and beautify the town," this year's contest convenor Sylvia Boothman told the group, noting that, "much smaller towns than ours have beautiful yards and gardens. We need a change in attitude."

Changes could also be in the wind for the afternoon stage show, with a suggestion that the chamber's downtown stage that is used for the pancake breakfast entertainment could be a venue for youth bands and other entertainment for the younger set. With a considerable amount of young talent in the community, they may need more time than is available as part of an all-ages show, and that area is already set up and ready for use on the afternoon of Canada Day.

Huge attendance at the Strong Man competition spoke well for that change in venue, and the new site for the Farm Survival Challenge was a hit as well, although organizers Dave Pilisko and Laverne Wilson noted a problem in finding participants this year. Pilisko feels moving the event ahead to possibly 4 p.m. would keep the interest rolling and the crowds in town.

An earlier start for the Canada Day Idol would also be a plus, it was noted, as much of the audience was just leaving this year's event when the fireworks started.

All in all, both Capjack and committee secretary-treasurer Deanna Easthope felt this year's celebration went well.

"It's so nice to hear all these people tell us what a great Canada Day we have here," Capjack commented, as she thanked the committee for an outstanding effort on their part.

Face-lift forecast

They're right, you know. Downtown Elk Point could have looked better on Canada Day. The Canada Day committee is already talking about how to get merchants involved in making Main Street more attractive for those who come to town to watch the parade and attend the activities, and sad to say, yes, it does need some sprucing up.

Christmas lights look great for Extravaganza, and we definitely need them there at that time, but most homeowners take their lights down in early spring – shouldn't businesses do the same? They really don't add to the overall attractiveness in June and July.

A pat on the back to those who have prettied up the planters outside their places of business, and those who have washed away all the dust stuck to their windows by fleeting showers. Not everyone has done that, and it would have looked much better if they had. Even sweeping the sidewalk, which "in the olden days" was part of a storekeeper's routine, is not something that generally happens these days.

Let's all resolve to do better next year.

WAY BACK WHEN

Cowboy boots, Community Services

Here's the news that made the headlines of the Lakeland Review and Elk Point Review for the week of July 14 in...

1984

Progressive Conservative leader Brian Mulroney got down to the grassroots when he visited Vermilion, tugging on a gift of cowboy boots, standing tall on this new western foundation and calling out, "Bring on those Grits!" Markstad Park was reforested and refurbished by a group of volunteers who picked rocks and roots before Joe Zarowny disked the land ready for the seeding of new grass.

1989

Elk Point Empress Genies, coached by Linda Ference, Coral Tremblay and Daphne Schnurer, made a good showing at the Provincial PeeWee C Girls Fastball Tournament in Fort McMurray. Town council studied the possibility of combining the Family and Community Support Services and Recreation boards and departments into a Community Services board and department.

1994

Amoco Canada, Norcen Energy Resources and Pan Canadian Petroleum agreed to split the costs with the Town of Elk Point on a cleanup of 'a diesel-like substance' from the town's sewage lagoon, and also agreed that it will be necessary to inspect all business premises that could potentially be a source of such pollutants. Dirk and Doris Ludlage and family were the winners of the County of St. Paul's 1994 Farm Family Award.

1999

Stoney Lake stampeded in bright sunshine, with local cowboy Matt Veer winning the calf roping title. Alberta TrailNet senior vice-president Don Watson was overwhelmed by the amount of support he found in St. Paul for extending the Trans Canada Trail through the County of St. Paul on its existing trail system.

2004

The model of Fort George, created by the late Betty Schaap during the 1992 Bicentennial celebrations of Fort Gorge and Buckingham House, was back at the forts after a long absence, after it was loaned to a group in the Cold Lake area by the FGBH director, who then left the position, leaving the name of a person who could not be tracked down to retrieve the model. An all-star cast, including stage show headliner Michael Carey, made the Canada Day Gospel Concert a huge success.

Government Will Need to Raise Taxes or Cut Spending to End Deficit.

GUEST COLUMN

Wait a while

It is now summer time, the kids are home from school and families are now able to do those things they have waited a while to do. It is a good time of year, so may all of you have a great summer.

When we think of things we have all waited a while to do, there comes to mind more things than just going places or doing things that we haven't been able to do just because. What about noticing things – and people – in our everyday lives and how they make a difference to us each day? Have we waited a while to compliment them? Compliments can be hard to give or hard to receive. However, when you talk to some people who have received compliments verbally or in note form, it is treasurer that is remembered.

If you are a person who may want to give someone a compliment, but you are putting it off, you really are joining the "Wait-a-While Club". There are, however, some responsibilities. People who join the "Wait-a-While Club" have got to pay attention as the days go by. Members are always on the lookout for ways to lift someone – to say thanks, to give encouragement, to express love.

Have you ever saved a note you've received? Maybe it was a note thanking you for something you did, or for your influence, or for some specific experience or event. Perhaps you have a memory of a phone call or a visit with someone who thanked you or remembered you in a specific way. Can you think of people you have meant to thank? Have you waited quite a while? Are there letters you've meant to write, visits you've meant to make, phone calls on a list somewhere? Even if it's been a long, long while, it's never too late to thank someone.

EASTHOPE
from the FCSS desk

Are there people in your life who have helped you whom you have never thanked? It's not like they're waiting – keeping a list and checking it off when the thank-yous pour in. But I wonder what it would mean to them to receive a note, a phone call, even a visit where that's possible. You won't be able to get in touch with some of them, certainly. Maybe they've gone Home (died).

Maybe they've moved, and you've just lost track of them. Write a thank-you note anyway, even if you can't send it. It just might turn out to be one of the sweetest experiences you've had in a long time. And then try another thing: Write a letter from them to you. What would they say? What would they remember about you? What would they want you to know?

Now that your thinking of the people that you can put on your list that would enjoy hearing from you, and who you might enjoy hearing from, welcome to the "Wait-a-While Club". Whether you have been a member or you're just joining, welcome. You're going to love this. Even though it does take some effort, you can't imagine how much fun this is. All it takes is caring and doing, feeling and then acting upon those feelings, watching for the chance to give someone genuine praise and encouragement. The blessings will come back to you; they always, always do.

Begin now with your own families during this summer time. Whether your traveling or staying at home this summer with your families, take the time to acknowledge what you enjoy about your family. Let them know. Thank them and tell them how much you love them. It does come back to you – maybe it will be a while.

Have a happy, enjoyable summer everyone!

~ Canada Day Yard Contest ~

Jeannette Bouchard's well-groomed yard on Ravine Drive won the admiration of the Natural Beauty category judges, who awarded her first place in this year's Canada Day Yard Decorating contest.

Last year's first-place yard, once again looking its best under the loving care of Peter Andrishak, placed second in the Natural Beauty category.

Shade gardening is growing in popularity, and Donna Bassett has done wonders with her third-prize-winning Natural Beauty yard. Her back yard, which was unfortunately not the focus of this contest, is a real showpiece.

Numerous creative touches, including a handmade inukshuk and a sign proclaiming, "Elk Point – the Right Place to Be" (inset) gave Violet McFadyen's cottage-style garden first prize in the new Canadian Pride category of the Canada Day Yard Decorating contest.

Patsy Zarowny is surrounded by Canadiana and lush growth in her yard on a sunny Canada Day afternoon, after placing second in the Canadian Pride category.

Proud to be a Canadian is the message clearly expressed by Minnie Benson in her third prize yard in the Canadian Pride category.

Inspector Iwannano coming to library

By NICOLE LABRIE

Calling all agents! Your mission: Come to the Elk Point Library for an afternoon of fun and magic. That's right, the library is pleased to announce that Brian Lehr will be coming to present his educational 'Inspector Iwannano Magic Show' next Tuesday at 2 p.m.

Mr. Lehr stars as Inspector Iwannano and leads the kids on an adventure filled with music, magic and fun. The kids are encouraged to participate in the show in finding clues that lead to positive traits that are important in life. This show matches the theme of our Summer Reading Program this year which is Agent 009.

Anyone is welcome to come, and we also invite parents to accompany their children to the show. Also, Mr. Lehr will have souvenirs available for purchase after the show. If you have any questions, please contact the Library at (780) 724-3737. Thank you to Northern Lights Library System for sponsoring this show.

Lastly, the library has extended our hours for summer. Please stop by the library and pick up a bookmark with our new hours or call the library for more information.

Sox improve winning record

Roses are red, Violets are blue, we got ten and they only got
two. Wearing a hoodie or toque at a ball game in Alberta in May is almost normal, but by the middle of July, it just shouldn't be, it's embarrassing to have to resort to that, but boy oh boy was it cold this past Thursday when the Sox traveled to Cold Lake to take on the Cardinals.

Not easy on pitchers arms either when the weather is so cold and the coaching staff was really cautious about not wanting to hurt any of their horses before the provincial final in a few weeks. So, they decided to use as many as they could in this one,

the youngster Dylan Berg was first to get the call to the hill and pitched two scoreless innings. Evan "Ernie" Joly, coming out of the bullpen, headed to the hill next and allowed only one run in three innings. Mike
"Dontrelle" Desjarlais
got the job done as well, going two innings and allowing only one run.

The Sox now leading by a 10 to 2 score after six would go to some major heat to finish this one, Dustin Berg came in to close
this one down, the final, 10 to 2 for the Sox. A double for Tanner

Corbeil, and clean up man Dustin Berg, a single for "Ernie" Joly.

Saturday morning at Bassett Field the weather wasn't a whole lot better when the Sox
hosted the six team round robin and faced their friends from Cold Lake once again, this time winning 6 to 2.

"Ernie" Joly on the mound for six innings
allowed only one run,
young rookie Dylan
Berg came in to close this one allowed one run, but shut the door after that.

"Ernie" Joly with an RBI double and an RBI single, two singles and two
RBI's for Brett
"Bert"

Romanovich, a single
for Tanner Corbeil, Dustin Berg, Matthew
"MC Hammer" Church
and Jordan Darr. The Sox have done well
against the Cardinals
this year winning 5 out of 6 times they have met their rivals.

Saturday at six the weather had finally warmed up like a normal July evening when the boys took on the Drayton Valley Drillers
and tested a few new arms before the provincial final, a chance to see what you may have before you need them.

Zach Ward went three innings before he ran into trouble, "MC Hammer" and "Bert"
getting a few batters
each before they got the hook, but the defense didn't really give these guys much of a chance,
the boys bobbling the ball, and making a number of errors the Sox were down by 7 runs after four. Chucker Dustin Berg coming in the forth inning threw some serious heat for three innings, allowing only one run, the Sox battled back and took the lead, "Dontrelle"
coming in for the seventh getting the save,
the Sox winning a close one 10 to 9. Singles for

Tanner Corbeil, Kurtis
"Knuckles" Nicholson,
the Berg Brothers,
Dylan and Dustin,
"Dontrelle" and Zach
Ward.

After 18 games this season, the Sox record is 11 wins and 7 losses.

And now for the K.A. Campbell quote of the week. "There is always some kid who may be seeing me for the first or last time. I owe him my best."

Last week's answer to - "If your not having fun in baseball, you miss the point of everything," Chris Chambliss.
